

Monday, 28 March: Hybrid*

*In-person at the QEII Centre and online – all sessions will be live-streamed. The practical masterclasses are exclusive to those joining us in-person.

MONDAY, 28 MARCH 2022	From 9.00	Registration and exhibition
	10.00-11.00
		Practical masterclass: Debate: Will Time in Range eventually replace HbA1c?	Practical masterclass: Health inequalities: What underlies them?	Practical masterclass: Prevention of type 2 diabetes in younger people	Practical masterclass: The role of technology in diabetes education/training
	11.15-11.25	Opening words
	11.25-12.15	Named Lecture
	12.15- 12.30	Lunch Lunch can be taken into the session room
	12.30- 14.00	Sleep disturbance, circadian disruption and diabetes	Successes of the last decade	HypoResolve trial	Multimorbidity and diabetes	Diabetes and cancer
	14.00- 15.15	Coffee and exhibition			14.15- 15.15 Sponsored symposia
	15.30- 16.45	Practical masterclass: What will diabetes management look like in 20 years?	Practical masterclass: How do we help the 'lost tribe'?	Practical masterclass: Primary Care	Practical masterclass: Diabetes UK led development masterclass
	17.00- 18.30	Role of Artificial Intelligence in diabetes care	Diabetes and sexual functioning	Tackling obesity and the stigma of obesity in type 1 and type 2 diabetes management	Latest advances in diabetes technology	Managing diabetes in the older person
19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia

Tuesday, 29 March to Friday, 1 April: Online only

TUESDAY, 29 MARCH 2022	11.25- 12.15	Named Lecture
	12.30- 14.00	Hot topics in Primary Care	Identifying and addressing risk factors of intended self-injury or	Type 1 prevention/screening/immunotherapy	Orals (Awards)

			suicide in routine clinical care: Meeting needs of HCPs in supporting their patients
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia
	15.45- 16.35	Named Lecture
	17.00- 18.30	Diabetes remission: Latest data and acceptability	Diabetic Medicine symposium: Big Data: Sources and challenges: The evidence base for use in diabetes and future potential	Beta cell stress in relation to type 1 and type 2	Orals (Awards)	Orals
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia

WEDNESDAY, 30 MARCH 2022	11.25- 12.15	Named Lecture
	12.30- 14.00	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia
	17.00- 18.30	Update on Inpatient Care	Flash UK Trial	What is euglycaemia?	Orals	Orals
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia

THURSDAY, 31 MARCH 2022	11.25- 12.15	Named Lecture
	12.30- 14.00	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups	Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia

DIABETES UK

PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCE 2022

Hybrid 28 March
QEII Centre, London
Online 29 March to 1 April

	17.00- 18.30	Tackling inequalities	Responsible prescribing in relation to new drugs	Podiatry	Orals (Awards)	Orals
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia

FRIDAY, 1 APRIL 2022	11.25- 12.15	Named Lecture
	12.30- 14.00	Update on ophthalmology	Progress in stem cell therapy	Upskilling Primary Care to manage type 1 diabetes	Orals	Orals
	14.15- 15.15	Sponsored symposia
	15.45- 16.35	Named Lecture
	17.00- 18.30	Challenges in diabetes care for the next decade	Quality Improvement Interventions: Diabetes Service Models in Primary Care	Covid catchup	Management of type 2 diabetes in CYP and young adults	Awards Ceremony
	19.00- 20.00	Sponsored symposia

Awards sessions

Diabetes UK Professional Interest Groups

Named Lectures

Oral abstract sessions

Practical masterclass

Sponsored symposia sessions

Symposia sessions