

7.45	Registration
8.00	Exhibition and posters (Exhibition Hall)				Diabetes UK exhibition stand (Exhibition Hall) Come and pick up our updated information prescriptions
8.30–9.30	ICC Auditorium Modern era of diabetes management and digital health solutions (CC) (PC) (SC) Chairs: Samuel Seidu, Leicester and Emma Wilmot, Derby 8.30 The interplay of cardio renal metabolic disease in type 1 diabetes and type 2 diabetes Naveed Sattar, Glasgow 8.50 The future of insulin, technology and digital health innovations Alice Cheng, Toronto, Canada 9.20 Questions
9.35–10.35	ICC Auditorium Meeting the diabetes workforce challenge (CC) (PC) (SC) Chairs: Ketan Dhatariya, Association of British Clinical Diabetologists and Nicola Milne, Primary Care Diabetes Society An interactive discussion to support and address the challenges the workforce face locally. Helen O’Kelly Diabetes UK and Sharon Lum, Diabetes UK	Rooms 7–9 Caring for the elderly/frail individuals with diabetes within the community setting (CS) (CC) (PC) Chair: Janice Moses, Cardiff 9.35 Management of diabetes in frail older people: The role of the community diabetes specialist services Giuseppe Maltese, London 10.05 Evaluating frailty, modification of treatments strategies and monitoring in the community David Strain, Exeter	Rooms 10–11 Rare forms of diabetes (BS) (CS) Chair: Amanda Adler, Oxford 9.35 Cystic fibrosis related diabetes: Pathogenesis and therapeutics Jim Shaw, Newcastle-upon-Tyne 9.55 Islet dysfunction in cystic fibrosis Catriona Kelly, Derry 10.15 Monogenic diabetes: Aetiology to treatment Kashap Patel, Exeter	Room 12 Diabetes and oral health (CC) (CS) (SC) Chair: Sarah Kasasa, London 9.35 Systemic health and oral health with a focus on diabetes Francesco D’Aiuto, London 9.55 Making every contact count: The role of the oral healthcare team Zehra Yonel, Birmingham 10.10 Diabetes and oral health: A patient's perspective and considerations for the healthcare team Dominika Antoniszczak, Warsaw, Poland	Room 14 Diabetes UK Education and Self-management Award Chairing Judge: Tabitha Randell, Nottingham Judge: Martha Stewart, Birmingham Orals x4	Room 17 Insights from big data and trials Chairs: Lalantha Leelarantha, Manchester and Martin Rutter, Manchester Orals x4	Room 4 Practical tips: Improving lived experience & outcomes in women with type 2 diabetes in pregnancy (CC) (CS) (PC) (SC) Chairs: Nuru Clark, London and Claire Meek, Leicester Facilitators: Nuru Clark, London, Michelle Hadjiconstantinou, Leicester, Ingrid Heber, London and Eleanor Scott, Leeds
10.35–11.00	Coffee, exhibition and posters (Exhibition Hall)				Diabetes UK exhibition stand (Exhibition Hall) National Diabetes Audit: Understand your data		Spotlight Theatre (Exhibition Hall) 10.40–10.55 Diabetes UK Healthcare Engagement Team: The benefits of involving people affected by diabetes in research Elizabeth Eves
11.00–11.40	ICC Auditorium Mary MacKinnon Lecture: The highs and lows of being practically perfect Chair: Hannah Beba, Leeds Sarah Upton, West Yorkshire and Rachel Urban, West Yorkshire
11.45–12.45	ICC Auditorium Evolving psychological issues in diabetes technology: Evidence, manifestation and response (PC) (SC) 11.45 Psychosocial aspects of diabetes technology: What does the research say? Katharine Barnard Kelly, Southampton 11.55 Technology and hyperglycaemia aversion Vicky McKechnie, London 12.05 Understanding and responding to psychological issues with technology Pratik Choudhary, Leicester and Nicole de Zoysa, London 12.20 Lived experience of diabetes technology Svea Krutisch, Berne, Switzerland 12.30 Discussion	Rooms 7–9 Diabetic Medicine symposium: From bench to bedside: An integrated and multidisciplinary approach to tackling diabetic kidney disease Chairs: Claire Hills, Lincoln and Janaka Karaliedde, London 11.45 Diabetic kidney disease in type 1 diabetes: Lessons learned from the FinnDiane study Lena Thorn, Helsinki, Finland 12.05 Endothelial glycocalyx as a therapeutic target in the microvascular complications of diabetes Simon Satchell, Bristol 12.25 SGLT2 inhibitors and the kidney: From mechanisms to outcomes Daniel H Van Raalte, Amsterdam, Netherlands	Rooms 10–11 Exercise and glycaemia in pregnant women with diabetes (CS) (PC) (SC) Chairs: Ezekiel Musa, Cumbria and Ponnusamy Saravanan, Warwick 11.45 What are the benefits of exercise in regnancy? Kathryn Hesketh, Cambridge 12.00 The impact of acute physical exercise characteristics on glycaemia in diabetes Richard Bracken, Swansea 12.15 What interventions can increase physical activity in pregnancy or postnatal populations? A perspective from UK and India Ponnusamy Saravanan, Warwick 12.30 How can clinical teams give useful exercise advice to women with diabetes in pregnancy? Rob Andrews, Exeter	Room 12 Papers to people (CS) (PC) (SC) Chair: Partha Kar, Portsmouth 11.45 Introduction: Papers to people Partha Kar, Portsmouth 11.55 Concept Helen Murphy, Norfolk 12.05 Type 2 diabetes in the young Shivani Misra, London 12.15 D-Coding research Jazz Sethi, Ahmedabad, India 12.35 Questions	Room 14 Lived experience Chairs: Adrian Heald, Manchester and Nina Patel, London Orals x4	Room 17 Diabetes education Chair: Martha Stewart, Birmingham Orals x4	Room 4 Addressing health inequalities in diabetes through collaborative leadership: The practicalities (CC) (PC) (SC) Facilitators: Tonye Boma Oburoh, Kent and Alia Gilani, Sheffield	Poster Theatre (Exhibition Hall) Facilitated posters: Basic science Facilitators: Nimesh Mody, Aberdeen and Catherine Arden, Newcastle-upon-Tyne Facilitated posters x10
12.45–13.55	Lunch, exhibition and posters (Exhibition Hall)				Diabetes UK exhibition stand (Exhibition Hall) Come and register for our free CPD e-learning platform and take away information to share with your team
12.45–13.30	Exhibition Hall, Poster Area Poster session: Even numbered posters to be presented
Lunchtime sessions	12.55–13.50 Diabetes UK Professional Interest Networks x 2 Midwives and pregnancy Facilitators: Claire Meek, Cambridge Primary care Facilitators: Nicola Milne, Manchester and Samuel Seidu, Leicester				Room 3 Room 4
13.55–14.55	ICC Auditorium The emerging role of AI in medicine (SC) Chair: Thabit Hood, Manchester 13.55 Application of AI in diabetes Chris Sainsbury, Glasgow 14.15 Practical applications and evidence base of AI in diabetes Deborah Wake, Edinburgh 14.35 Can machine learning help diagnose childhood type 1 diabetes earlier? Julia Townson, Cardiff	Rooms 7–9 Diabetes and liver health: What we all need to know (CC) (CS) (PC) Chairs: Gillian Hood, London and Wenhao Li, London 13.55 What is metabolic dysfunction associated steatotic liver disease (MASLD) and why does it matter in people with type 2 diabetes? Wenhao Li, London 14.10 Implementation of MASLD care in the community Helen Jarvis, Newcastle-upon-Tyne 14.25 Developing pathways in MASLD: How to identify those at risk and what are patients own attitudes and perceptions about MASLD? Mike James, London 14.40 Treatments for people with MASLD Thomas Marjot, Oxford	Rooms 10–11 Is diabetes antibody screening for type 1 diabetes ready for primetime? (CC) (CS) (PC) (SC) Chair: Victoria Salem, London 13.55 Introduction and pre-vote Victoria Salem, London 14.05 For Rachel Besser, Oxford 14.20 Against Richard Oram, Exeter 14.35 Questions from the floor 14.45 Rebuttals and closing vote	Room 12 Challenging health inequalities: Making diabetes care and diabetes research more inclusive for people with a learning disability (CC) (PC) Chair: Esther Walden, Diabetes UK 13.55 Understanding the hospital experience of adults with learning disabilities during the Covid-19 pandemic: Reflections for clinical practice Natasha Marsland, Diabetes UK 14.05 Breaking the cycle of inequalities for people with a learning disability: Reasonably adjusting care and research for inclusivity Amy Russell, Leeds 14.25 Making reasonable adjustments for adults with a learning disability with type 2 diabetes: The DESMONDS -ID Structured Diabetes Education programme Laurence Taggart, Belfast 14.45 Questions	Room 14 Data opportunities to support new knowledge and health policy decisions (CS) (PC) (SC) Chairs: Partha Kar, Portsmouth and Kamlesh Khunti, Leicester 13.55 Why is collecting and using clinical data important to people living with diabetes? Chris Miezowski, London 14.03 Why has the National Diabetes Audit (NDA) become a resource for research? Bob Young, Longniddry 14.08 Using NDA data to evaluate the Diabetes Prevention Programme Jonathan Valabhiji, London 14.16 Using NDA data to understand the effect of Covid-19 in people with type 2 diabetes Naomi Holman, London 14.24 Using NDA data to understand type 2 diabetes in young people Shivani Misra, London 14.32 Using NDA data to evaluate rtCGMS rollouts in type 1 diabetic pregnancy Helen Murphy, Norwich 14.40 Questions	Room 17 Diabetes foot Chairs: Jayne Robbie, Birmingham and Janice Tsui, London Orals x4	Room 4 CGM arcade (PC) Facilitators: Holly Laman, Middlesbrough and Nadia Malik, Middlesbrough
15.00–15.15	ICC Auditorium Awards Ceremony Colette Marshall, Diabetes UK
15.15–15.55	ICC Auditorium RD Lawrence Lecture: Type 1 diabetes in adults: Misdiagnosed, mistreated and misunderstood Chair: Naveed Sattar, Glasgow Angus Jones, Exeter
15.55	Close of conference							